a meeting place
where the quality
of hospitality frees
people to respond
to the promptings
of the Spirit within
and among them.*

VALLOMBROSACENTER

Vallombrosa Retreat and Conference Center, owned and operated by the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of San Francisco, provides facilities for retreats, seminars, conferences and workshops, lasting one or more days. Conference and breakout rooms for groups ranging in size from ten to eighty can be tailored to meet specific needs.

Residential facilities consist of 60 rooms, 40 of which are twin-bedded. Each room has its own bathroom. For the convenience of our guests, Vallombrosa is wireless in most areas.

It is never too early to discuss plans for your meeting, conference or retreat. You will find our rates affordable and our staff ready to serve you.

Retreats

Vallombrosa welcomes inquiries from groups interested in holding meetings of a religious, educational or charitable nature. The Center is conveniently located between San Jose and San Francisco airports and is easily accessible by highway, bus or shuttle service.

Though the Center enjoys a peaceful seclusion, it is only minutes from downtown Menlo Park, as well as Stanford University and the adjacent shopping center.

In the course of the year, the Center also sponsors a number of retreats, day of recollection, and workshops dealing with spirituality. Inquiries concerning these sponsored programs are always welcome.

As a non-profit institution, Vallombrosa reserves the right to limit the use of its facilities to groups and organizations whose purposes are in accord with Vallombrosa's philosophy and tax exempt status.

Vallombrosa Center is available to groups for meetings, conferences, workshops and retreats.
